ADVERTISEMENT.

In February, 1836, the Library and the records of the Acting Society were destroyed by fire. The Committee have therefore encountered many difficulties in preparing this Catalogue; but they have been able to correct several errors in the last, and they hope that this may prove sufficiently correct to meet the approval of all who know the circumstances in which the Society is placed.

Several names of old members of the Society have not appeared in the two last Catalogues; for what reason the Committee do not know; but on account of honorable mention made of them in the records, their names are inserted in this.

The places of residence of individuals have been ascertained through various sources, but it cannot be expected that they will be entirely correct.

The names of Honorary members are separated by a line from the names of those who have been regularly initiated.
